Junior Type Designer

(part-time)

I'm looking for a type designer to join me at the Original Type headquarters based in Amsterdam. The ideal candidate for this position is a recent graduate in Type Design or has 1 year experience and is looking to further develop her/his skills in a type design practice.

Key activities:

- Help out with the development of retail and custom type projects
- Occasionally help out with producing visuals for the website or social media channels

Requirements:

- Strong understanding of the basics of type design (construction, weight, proportion, contrast, spacing)
- Able to draw solid outlines
- Able to work in Glyphs
- Eligible to work in The Netherlands
- Proficiency in Dutch or English (written and spoken)
- Available to start in February

Nice to have:

- Experience with designing other scripts than Latin (eg Cyrillic, Greek, Arabic)
- Experience with working with GitHub

I'm offering:

- A six month employment contract for 3 days per week
- A salary in line with BNO (Association of Dutch Designers) recommendations
- 2 weeks paid vacation
- Partial compensation of travel costs (within The Netherlands at a reasonable distance from Amsterdam)
- Free lunch

Candidates are invited to apply by sending your resumé and a pdf showing examples of your best work along with a covering email to artur@originaltype.com before January 24th 2020.

This is not a remote position, I'm seeking someone who can work with me at the office in Amsterdam. Relocating costs are not compensated.

For questions about the position or application please write to artur@originaltype.com or call during Dutch office hours on +31 (0)20 244 18 51.

Looking forward to your application!

NO RECRUITERS OR AGENCIES PLEASE.
